SCHEDULE

MUSICAL DIRECTOR

Dawn Poff

Dawn Poff was raised in California. She grew up in a musical family and began playing and performing the piano at age four. Her father was a bluegrass and country musician; she would perform with him and play strictly by ear.

Dawn has been teaching piano since age 13. She currently has a piano school of approximately 45 students. She and her family love the Vail Valley and all that it offers.

Dawn has lived in Eagle County since 1983 and has been performing, writing, recording, directing and teaching music in the Vail Valley since 1984. Her list of musical accomplishments include studying with Dr. Alan Rea of Julliard, Who's Who in Music, Music Hall of Fame, Bank of America Achievement Award in Fine Arts and performing for many local Broadway musicals.

ARTISTIC DIRECTOR

Rayla Kundolf

Rayla Kundolf is from Santa Fe, where she was one of the founding troubadours at La Casa Sena—one of the places that served as the inspiration for Vail Cabaret Nights.

Rayla attended the College of Santa Fe, where she obtained a Bachelor of Fine Arts degree with an emphasis on performance. She has always been involved with music; she has an extensive background of singing, directing and producing musical productions in each of the many cities in which she has lived. Rayla is the director of Masters Gallery. She resides in Vail with her husband, Taylor, a world-class pianist.

Charlie Barry

Charlie is from Vail, Colorado and has lived in Vail Valley all his life. He began singing five years ago, when he first participated in plays and musicals. He performs with the Vail Performing Arts Academy. Charlie is an avid skier; he is a student at The Ski Academy/Battle Mountain and will be a sophomore in the fall.

Meghan Jacobs

Meghan was born and raised in the Vail Valley and lives in Gypsum, Colorado with her parents and her brother Galen. She is currently attending Vail Christian High School and will be a junior in the fall. For 16 years of age, her musical experience is impressive. She most recently played the Narrator in her spring musical production of "Joseph and the Amazing Technicolored Dreamcoat." She has also been singing for years in church and school choirs. In addition to singing, Meghan enjoys playing volleyball with her school and reading. With her friends she likes to see movies, play capture the flag, poker and "I'll Buy It", manhunt, and telephone pictonary.

Mercedes Dymphinis

Mercedes is originally from Vail, Colorado. She has studied voice with the coaching of Bernadette Peters in New York, and with Kathy Mattea in Nashville. After singing for private parties around the country and having been invited to sing for several events abroad, Mercedes has returned home. She is enjoying entertaining you all here at Marketplace on Meadow Drive. Her other performances can be found listed at www.MercedesD.com.

Galen Jacobs

Galen is from Gypsum, Colorado and has lived in Vail Valley for 18 years. He recently graduated from Vail Christian High School and will be attending the University of Denver in the fall. His hobbies include biking, singing, playing the piano and pick-up games. Galen has been singing for years with church and school choirs.

Molly Brooks

Molly is from Edwards, Colorado and has lived in the Vail Valley for 18 years. She has been singing for over 12 years in both church and school choirs, and local and regional talent shows. She also has sung in several musicals including "Les Miserables" as Cosette in 2006 and Cinderella in "Into the Woods" in 2007. Molly will attend the University of Colorado-Boulder in the fall where she plans on continuing her music education while hopefully participating in the CU Club Volleyball Team.

Samantha McIntosh

Samantha is from Denton, Texas. She has been singing since she was a young girl, when she started with voice lessons and performing with the church choir. During college in Texas, Samantha was the lead singer in a band that did local performances, mostly just for fun. She has lived in the Vail Valley for seven years and moved here because her best friend from college talked her into it! Samantha's hobbies include swimming, skate-skiing, snowshoe, biking and guitar. She currently works for a hotel doing revenue management.
